HERE IS SOME USEFUL INFORMATION ON CAR RENTAL.	Notes on vehicle condition
Rental Agreement: The rental agreement is an important document that defines the terms and conditions of the rental, including costs, conditions of use of the vehicle, and the driver's responsibilities. The agreement is signed by the customer when picking up the car and can be read in advance to understand the rental terms.	Exterior
Driver's Responsibility: The driver is responsible for any damage to the vehicle during the rental period, as well as for fines imposed for violations of the Highway Code and other costs that may arise during the rental period.
Damages: Before leaving with the car, it is important to check that the vehicle has no damage and note any changes on the Vehicle Condition Acceptance Form. This will avoid disputes over damage when returning the vehicle.	Interior
Insurance: It is important to carefully read the Rental Agreement to understand your obligations regarding the use of the vehicle. If you violate these obligations, the insurance and liability limitations may be considered void.
Returning the Car: If the vehicle is returned at a different time or place than agreed or if it is particularly dirty or smelly, you may be charged additional costs. If you smoked in the car, you will be charged an additional cost.
Contacts and Solutions: If you need to contact the agency staff at the end or at any time during the rental, you can use the numbers on the back of this Rental Terms brochure. After the rental, you can contact the Agency's Customer Service during office hours and the team will help you resolve any issues. If you believe we will not be able to resolve the problem satisfactorily and if the rental was made in another European country, you can contact the European Car Rental Conciliation Service (ECRCS), an independent conciliation service, or use online dispute resolution (ODR).	Fuel tank status
WHAT IS INCLUDED: Third Party Liability Insurance: Third party liability insurance is included in the rental fee and protects the driver and other authorized drivers from claims by third parties for death, personal injury or property damage.	☐ Full ☐ ¾ ☐ ½ ☐ ¼
This Agreement is governed by the laws of the Country where the Vehicle is rented. The Driver declares that he/she has read and understood this Agreement and accepts all rental conditions.	The Driver must return the Vehicle to CAR TERRA VERDE HOLDING at the end of the Rental Period. The Vehicle must be returned with a full fuel tank and in good condition, except for normal wear and tear. CAR TERRA VERDE HOLDING reserves the right to charge the Driver for any repair costs for damage to the Vehicle.

Exterior..... Interior.....
Damage Limitations: Most rental rates include Collision Damage Waiver (CDW) and Theft Protection (TP) which limit the driver's liability for loss of or damage to the vehicle to the deductible stated in the Rental Agreement. You can purchase SuperCover (SC) to eliminate the deductible. Fuel: The vehicle is provided with a full fuel tank. You can return the vehicle with a full tank or pay to have it filled up when returned. Equipment: The fee includes all mandatory equipment. You can choose from a range of optional equipment and paid services such as GPS, child seats etc., subject to availability. WHAT IS NOT INCLUDED: Additional Driver: You can include an additional driver in the contract by presenting their driver's license and paying a supplement. Personal Insurance (PI): You can purchase additional coverage that compensates for injury to the driver and loss or damage to your and your passengers' personal belongings. Any fines or expenses for traffic violations during the rental are not covered. It is advisable to carefully read the rental conditions of the chosen agency for detailed information on insurance inclusions and exclusions and car rental. Liability: CAR TERRA VERDE HOLDING is responsible for providing the vehicle in good general condition and replacing it in the event of mechanical failure. The customer is responsible for taking care of the vehicle, using it and returning it in accordance with the Rental Agreement. Disputes: CAR TERRA VERDE HOLDING seeks to resolve any disputes through amicable agreement. If necessary, you can refer to the independent dispute resolution services available. Privacy: The customer consents to the use of their personal data as described in CAR TERRA VERDE HOLDING'S privacy policy. Rental Periods Over 28 Days: If the rental is 28 days or more, the customer must return the vehicle to one of the CAR TERRA VERDE HOLDING agencies at least every 28 days or at any time required by CAR TERRA VERDE HOLDING.
